

William Game joins the team

Radnor Capital Partners is pleased to welcome William Game into the business as an Associate Director.

He joins Radnor from Zeus Capital Ltd, where he held the position of Director in equity research. He has over ten years of equity capital markets experience having previously worked at Cantor Fitzgerald, Charles Stanley Securities and Peel Hunt. He is a Mathematics graduate from the University of Nottingham. Post his degree, William qualified as a Chartered Financial Analyst.

***

“William’s arrival further enhances the strength in depth across the Radnor team. His broad capital markets experience in analysing companies across a variety of sectors, advising corporate clients and engaging investors will be invaluable. William brings specific experience in Industrials, Support Services and Technology.

We firmly believe investing in the right people underpins the service we deliver to our clients, both now and into the future. This appointment is testament to this.”

Joshua Cryer
Managing Partner

Radnor Capital Partners Ltd
www.radnorcp.com