

Ralph Anderson joins the team

Radnor Capital Partners is delighted to welcome Ralph Anderson into the business as a Senior Associate.

Ralph has over eight years of sell-side and Capital Markets experience. He spent six years at independent research house, Redburn Europe (Rothschild & Co) organising and managing roadshows on behalf of Large-Cap UK and EU corporates, as well as thematic investor events. More recently, Ralph was responsible for Investor Access at Newgate Communications for Small and Mid-Cap clients as part of the Capital Markets team. Ralph has a broad range of investor relationships built up over many years.

“We welcome Ralph to the team. From his time spent at Redburn and Newgate, he has some very relevant capital markets experience, particularly in engaging investors. Ralph has built-up strong institutional and private wealth relationships over the years, as well as working closely with corporate clients on their Investor Relations programmes. We believe he will be an excellent addition to the growing Radnor team.”
